

Gaining experience at Hindustan Times Printing Press

Updating the students with the current and the latest is what we strive for .In a democratic country where media plays a strong role the students of class ix were taken to visit the Hindustan Times Printing Press .The experts showed them around and informed them about the entire process of printing the newspaper queries of the students who were interested in taking up journalism as a career were answered.